Administrative Assistant Certificate (ADAC) Quick Facts 2024-2025

The Administrative Assistant program (ADAC) is a 1098-hour, 37-week program designed for students who have little or no prior business education or experience and is suitable for a wide range of students including recent high school graduates, career changers, as well as mature students wishing to upgrade their business technology skills. The program includes a comprehensive set of courses designed to prepare graduates for a wide range of employment opportunities in private, corporate and government business offices.

Students in this program will learn business communications; administrative office procedures; business math; accounting, including payroll and computerized accounting; word processing, spreadsheet, database, presentation, and desktop publishing; and effective job search techniques. The Administrative Assistant program may also be completed online. Graduates from the ADAC program can receive course equivalency credits for Business Administration BUAD 111 and BUAD 128.
